Message from the Headteacher

Dear All,

It was wonderful to see the independence and deep thinking evident in our House Assemblies this week. Pupil –led this is when the whole House across the year groups comes together as an entity and celebrates and considers important matters. Visitors are currently hearing the strain of festive songs "...sweetly sung by the choir".....of voices from EYFS and KS1 as well as the choirs across the schools.

Thanks are due to the organisers, helpers and everyone who came and participated and supported the School Christmas Bazaar. It was such a lovely atmosphere, I am sure you will agree. Currently, without the raffle, profit is approximately £2.5K. The raffle will continue to run until 10th December so please follow the link to some wonderful prizes at £1 a ticket.

The Concert at St Andrew's Melbourne after the Bazaar was well-supported and the children sang very well. Thanks are also due to the staff who are giving up more and more of their personal time to support opportunities for the children.

Tomorrow, we sing some of our recently started Christmas music at The Cathedral; meeting at 9.45 near the altar to sing from 10 for about half an hour to forty minutes.

We work with the Chelmsford Teaching Alliance to promote pupil development and last year started an Ambassador project which is about gathering views and finding ways to improve things outside school as well as in. Congratulations to Minerva and Matthew as they have been elected to these roles based on their excellent speeches. No doubt we will hear more from them.

Today we said a sad goodbye to one of our families who are moving to Scotland. We wish them well in their new life, we will miss Mesika.

Thank you to everyone who completed a Parents' Evening survey. 229 were completed and I have enclosed the percentage outcomes. We will now look at comments and welcome anyone in who has any issues.

I may see some of you tomorrow, wishing everyone a warm weekend, inside and out.

Kind regards

Linda Wiskin

Grow Your Well-Being

Glitter Bottles

This week at Well-being Wednesday, we made glitter bottles.

A glitter bottle can help calm your child when they feel stressed or overwhelmed. You can make a glitter bottle at home - then give it a shake, and watch the glitter settle.

If you would like to make one over the weekend, please see the instructions below:

1. First fill a clean, empty bottle with water (half way)
2. Next add a dash of food dye/colouring
3. Then add a couple of drops of glycerine
4. Finally sprinkle in some glitter, sequins, sprinkles...anything you like
5. Screw the lid of the bottle on tight. Secure with glue if needed.
6. SHAKE!

7. Here are some we made earlier...

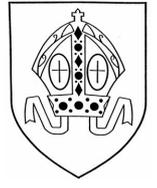

Have a great weekend,

Mrs Burnham

Reducing Pollution

Did you know that in order to help reduce pollution around our school, you can park in Tesco's car park?

As long as you are in and out of the car park within one hour, parking is free. Of course, if you are able to buy a pint of milk in Tesco's, even better!
